TA/Grader Responsibility Agreement Form

TA/Grader Name: _____

Instructor: _____

Course Number: _____ Course Title: _____

Term: _____ Hrs per week: _____

Please discuss with the instructor of the class what duties are required of you for your job. Check off the appropriate duties that apply. Both parties will sign the form and send it back to the Program Coordinator. Not all duties need to be checked. It is up to the instructor to determine what is needed, as long as it is relevant to the job assignment.

_____ Attend lecture
_____ Give recitations (only for TAs)
_____ Hold lab sessions (only for TAs)
_____ Instruction of sections/labs per week (only for TAs)
_____ Preparation of HW solutions (unless solutions are given)
_____ Preparation of lab sessions (only for TAs)
_____ Hold office hours per week
List office hours: _____
_____ Meeting w/ instructor hours per week
List meeting time: _____
_____ Read and evaluate papers, homework, and quizzes for students
_____ Proctor midterm examination(s) final exam (only for TAs)
_____ Perform individual and/or group tutoring
_____ Maintain/submit student records (e.g. grades) for HW, QZ, and Attendance
_____ Perform other tasks as assigned.
Please specify: _____
_____

- Is the duty assigned consistent with the appointment type?
- Is the duty expected to be carried out within the allotted number of hours in general?

- Graduate Teaching Assistant jobs limit a Student Employee to no more than 19 hours per week. Enrollment of at least nine credit hours for each long session and as prescribed by KCEID with a minimum of three credit hour during the summer session in which they teach is required.
- EE Lab Assistants can perform similar duties to GTAs as long as it's within their weekly hourly limit (mostly 10hr/wk).
  - Lab Assistants need to submit weekly timesheets
- A grader is not expected to give lectures (other than HW discussion sessions if applicable), recitation classes, or conduct lab sessions
  - Graders need to submit weekly timesheets

This check sheet is designed to serve as a formal agreement of duties so that no one is confused about what they need to be doing. This form will only be kept with the department level for the duration of the job assignment. The overall quality of instruction, administration of assignments and exams, assigning and reporting grades are the responsibility of the instructor.

Instructor Signature: _____ Date: _____

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____